National provider directory available in collaboration with PrEPLocator. Extra filters (under I8, PEP) available for California-based providers.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

- Let us be your guide! Identify PrEP providers in your area using an up-to-date national directory.
- Increase provider listings in your area to ensure adequate coverage for youth, trans individuals, uninsured, Spanish-speaking, PrEP assistance programs, etc.

Web-based resources.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

- Let us get you PrEPped! Local HIV prevention resources in English & Spanish for patients and providers in all 50 states. Includes PrEP materials — from videos and websites to navigation toolkits and provider guides — vetted for accuracy and inclusive, sex-positive language.
- HIV prevention resource pages for specific audiences: PrEP users, providers, trans individuals, women and youth.
- Up-to-date explainer sheets on relevant issues: PleasePrEPMe.org/breakthrough-prep-infosheet, PleasePrEPMe.org/PEP-infosheet
- Collaborative web pages for specific, local campaigns (e.g. PleasePrEPMe.org/Alameda).
- Helping People Access PrEP: a frontline provider's manual. A range of information to aid the daily work that frontline staff engage in to support PrEP access and adherence in their local communities: PleasePrEPMe.org/prepnavigatormanual.
- Linkage to free training and capacity-building assistance resources.

Helping potential PrEP/PEP users find services in their area through chat, text and telephone, in English and Spanish. In collaboration with Project Inform and the Office of AIDS, California Department of Public Health. Currently available in California.
